The above are, and will be the leading principles before the country, until they are abandoned, and we will stand on our feet, until they are abandoned, and we will stand on our feet, until they are abandoned.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, THOMAS E. COCHRAN, of York FOR SURVEYOR GENERAL, WILLIAM H. KEIM of Berks.

Union County Convention.

The Voters of Union County opposed to the National Administration, are invited to meet in their respective Election Districts, on SATURDAY, AUGUST 27, 1859.

In the Townships from the hours of 2 to 5-- in the Boroughs from the hours of 4 to 7-- in the afternoon. The places of meeting to be:

In New Berlin at M. Kieckhefer's; in Millburg at Wm. Inhoff's; in West Buffalo at the Kaufman school-house; in White Deer at F. Sanders' in Union at F. Sanders', and in the remaining Districts at the Election Houses.

Then and there to select 2 Delegates in each District, to represent the District in the County Convention to convene at the Buffalo House, Lewisburg, at 11 A.M. of Monday, August 29, to nominate one or two persons for Assembly, one person for Prothonotary, one person for Treasurer, one person for Commissioner, one person for District Attorney, one person for County Surveyor, one person for Auditor, and to transact such other business as usually devolves upon the County Convention.

Resolved, That we exert our friends in this county to be vigilant but moderate in their canvass for county officers--selecting the best, most suitable and most deserving men--and then unite upon them like a band of brothers, and ensure their success by a handsome vote.

The Committee would also urge upon all concerned the importance of opening and of closing the polls precisely at the hours designated, and of so conducting the elections that every voter and candidate may have justice done him and no ground appear for complaint.

O. N. Worden, Archibald Thomas, G. F. Miller, Abraham Frederick, H. K. Sanders, Michael Kleckner, J. D. Forrey, Conrad Sheekler, James Irwin, Samuel Swengel, Wm. P. Dungal, James Marshall, S. Spigelmyer. County Committee

UNION COUNTY--CANDIDATES NAMED.

Assembly--Thomas Hayes.

Prothonotary--John Bilger.

Treasurer--Robert H. Laird.

Commissioner--Samuel Marshall.

District Attorney--Albert B. Vorse.

County Surveyor--Conrad Sheekler.

Auditor--Samuel C. Wit.

They sell the whole party to each candidate, just as a Russian lord sells his serfs with his land! We say many of the honest members of the party have become disgusted with this process of sale, wherein their will in Convention and their private feelings are no more regarded than if they were 'naturals.' How they are sold by their leaders, as so many sheep, they don't understand at all.

Only last fall, it will be remembered, Mr. Wolfe, a life-long Democrat, was rejected for Sheriff in order to take up a candidate fresh from the Know Nothing lodges and fragrant with its perfume. Old-time Democrats scratched their heads, and wondered how they could stand it. How it was done, they didn't know, only "it was that caucus in the Jury room."

That "sell" was bad enough--but when they awoke one fine morning and found themselves all "sold again" by the Nominee to a Volunteer, they really couldn't comprehend it. "Our side" said it was "bargain and sale," but had no public proof. How the thing was managed, is now published in a Court of Justice, and having been alluded to first in a Philad. paper, we give it for the information of many of our Democratic readers who do not like to be sold like so many sheep.

Henry Charles was sued on a Note (indorsed we believe by D. Moyer) for $75, made to J. W. Pennington. On the trial, the time when and the reason for which it was given, were proved by the following sworn evidence from H. W. Fries, one of the wheel-horses of our Democracy, in reply to interrogatories propounded before Ira S. Haseltine, Commissioner:

1st interrogatory: This paper marked A, and referred to in the commission aforesaid, here shown me, was executed in my presence and executed by Henry Charles and David Moyer in the bar-room of David Moyer, in the town of Hartleton, in the county of Union and State of Pennsylvania, on the second day of October, A. D., 1858.

2nd interrogatory: At the time the said note was executed, as aforesaid, deponent saw Henry Charles pay to J. W. Pennington twenty-five dollars, and from the conversation that then passed between the said Charles and Pennington, deponent understood and believes that the twenty-five dollars were paid Pennington by Charles as aforesaid, in consideration that Pennington, who was then a candidate before the people for the office of High Sheriff of Union county, would withdraw from said canvass and not run for the said office during the election then pending.

3rd interrogatory: John W. Young, Thomas Gutelius, J. W. Pennington, David Moyer, and deponent, at the time the said note was executed, did promise the said Charles that we would support him for the office of High Sheriff of the said Union county, and deponent believes that the said promise together with the promise of Pennington formed in the answer to interrogatory five formed the whole consideration for the note aforesaid.

4th interrogatory: Pennington did withdraw as above promised.

HENRY W. FRIES.

—And so it appears you Democrats of Union county--1000 men--were by your Dem. nominee abandoned to a Dem. volunteer for $25 cash and $75 in "promise to pay"--$100 in all, or 10 cts. a head! And these "high contracting parties" do not all even profess to belong to the Democracy!

"These be thy gods, O Israel!" Will you serve them any longer?

5. The Democracy of Northumberland county had a stormy time last Saturday, in nominating a county ticket--about 2,000 votes having been polled, with the following result:

Representative--Gen. Wm. H. Kase, of Rush, by 26 maj.

Commissioner--Philip Clark, of Sanbury, by 400 maj.

Treasurer--Dr. R. H. Aul, of Sanbury, 1700 maj.

Dist. Attorney--John Kay Clement, of Sanbury, by 190 maj.

Coroner--Cyrus Geary, of Sanbury, by a small maj.

Auditor--Peter W. Gray, of Sanbury, no opposition.

There were some "ballot-box stuffing" resorted to, the defeated candidates and their friends say, and probably with truth. Mr. Hottenstine was defeated by his own neighbors--the "upper end"--who voted against him because he refused, last winter, in the Legislature to permit a vote to be taken to see whether the upper end might not be allowed to unite with Union county. For this Anti-Democratic course "served him right."

—The Opposition make up their ticket on Monday next.

Horace Greeley has arrived in California, and was received with much honor. His description of his interview with Brigham Young, and all his other letters across the continent, are most interesting, and appear in his Tribune.

Col. Fremont's business affairs here assumed a better shape, and it may be so that he may become again a candidate for President.

Broderick is battling Lecomptonism most vigorously in Oregon.

Last reports from Oregon give Lansing Stout (Adm.) the certificate of election to Congress, by 45 maj. This is alleged to be a fraud, to be contested in the House, and that the outrageous rascality of the affair will be shown up to the disgrace of Laue and his party.

The European Conference at Zurich was in session, but its results had not transpired. The tumultuous elements in Italy appear to be subsiding.

Enclosed you will probably find one dollar for the continuance of the Star & Chronicle, which we can not think of firing without any how you can fix it. It is bread to the hungry, or at least if I was obliged to abstain from either one meal per day, or the Star & Chronicle, I should say two meals per day. We have had a variety of weather since May. That month was so dry as to materially injure the hay crop. We had four heavy frosts in June, which made vegetation look rather on the wilting order or about all killed. Corn was replanted but looks slim, and farmers are finishing haying and hoeing corn about the same time. Grain looks well. The weevil are eating the Spring wheat, but that which was sowed late I think will escape. Oats look fine. Sowed corn, for fodder, is plenty among us. Some farmers are not near through haying yet--mowing machines are coming into use. The Backeye, by Miller & Aultman, is the one for this country, although other kinds are used to some extent. Send me a Catalogue of Lewisburg University if you have any.

NORTHUMBERLAND, Aug. 20.—This morning about two o'clock, the ticket office of the Northern Central Railway and store of Mr. Elliott, at Northumberland, were discovered to be on fire. Notwithstanding the exertions of the firemen, who were promptly on the ground, the building was burned down, together with all the tickets of the Company and the books of Mr. Elliott. The ticket office was in a room adjoining Mr. Elliott's store. The cause of the fire is unknown. The loss on the building is $900. Note and book accounts of Mr. Elliott to the value of three or four thousand dollars were destroyed.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Charles Whittaker, a fireman on the Northern Central Railway, was accidentally killed on Saturday last, at Northumberland. He fell off the engine while in the act of oiling the valves, and was so severely injured that he died in a very short time.

STATE DEBT.—The Treasurer of the Commonwealth advertises for a quarter of a million of dollars worth of Pennsylvania fines. The diminution of the State debt progresses quietly and steadily at the rate of about $1,000,000 per annum. The interest is paid regularly, without borrowing or the slightest financial difficulty, and we mention the fact to remind our readers of the beneficial effects of the sale of the Public Works, about which interested parties raised such a clamor. In getting rid of those Public Works the Commonwealth threw off the heaviest load it had ever been called on to bear.—Harrisburg Telegraph.

AN OLD FRUIT BEARING TREE.—During a recent visit to Adams county, our venerable townsman, Jacob Ziegler, Esq., plucked some apples from a tree which was planted by him in Hanover township, eighty years ago. The tree is still vigorous and thrifty, bearing a large crop this season. Mr. Ziegler was a lad of eight years old when he planted the tree, and is now in his eighty-eighth year, being one of the oldest men living in our county. [The foregoing from the Harrisburg Telegraph, is an answer to the selfish assertion of many people, when asked to plant trees--"they won't do me any good." This man enjoyed the fruit of his labors, eighty years afterwards.]

On Monday evening, Gen. RILEY gave one of his stirring Temperance Lectures on Cameron's corner, and another in Independent Hall, Lewisburg.

FRANKLIN, N. H., Aug. 19.—Mrs. Betsey Danforth, who mysteriously disappeared on the 24th of July, was found to-day, alive, but reduced almost to a skeleton, in a slough hole, a mile from the house where she lived. She says her only sustenance she had had, for the last twenty-six days, was water. Mrs. Danforth is seventy-four years of age, and partially insane. She was unsuccessfully searched for by large parties of our citizens for two weeks after her disappearance, when all hopes of finding her were abandoned.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 20.—The celebrated sewing machine manufacturer of Geo. B. Slat & Co. was burned to the ground this morning by the work of an incendiary, but the business of the house, extended all over the country, will not be disturbed by the occurrence. There is an insurance of thirty thousand dollars on the property destroyed.

The Bloomsburg & Lackawanna railroad extension from Rupert to Danville, is completed, and the first engine went through a few days ago. A corps of engineers is now engaged in locating the road down the northern side of the Susquehanna to Chulasky and Northumberland, to connect with the Northern Central.

A lad in Selingsgrove about 12 years of age, by the name of Althouse, came to his death by a very simple accident. While a mill-wagon stopped, he got upon it, and before he had seated himself the horses started and he fell off, burst a blood vessel from which he died.

Rev. Joshua Kelly, of Muncy, has accepted a call to labor for the Baptist church in Williamsport a portion of the time. He was recently presented with an excellent carriage and trimmings by his friends in Muncy.

George A. Achenbush of Sugar Valley was nominated by the Democrats of Clinton county for Assembly and James Gumble for Judge. In Clearfield they propose Geo. R. Barrett for Judge. The Opp. in Clearfield are for Linn for Judge.

THE subscriber wishes to contract for TWO BARS on the lowest Cash Terms. One to be built immediately, in Lewisburg, 28 by 20 feet. The other, a Bank Barn, 60 by 40, to be built next Spring, near Watsonstown: the Timber to be got on the premises.

A New Business in Central Penn.

To the public in general & Milliners in particular.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the dwellers in Lewisburg and surrounding country, that they have opened a Straw Hat & Bonnet Bleaching and Pressing establishment in this town, where we are prepared to execute all work entrusted to our care. Having had 14 years' constant experience in the business in Philad. City, and being acquainted with the most approved process of Bleaching, we are confident of our ability to suit those who give us their custom. By devoting time and attention to our business, performing work neatly and delivering it promptly, we hope to succeed.

Also Sew and Re-Finish FELT and Beaver Hats.

Our work is done in City style and at the lowest City prices. We make the usual liberal deduction to the Trade--and hence Milliners will find it to their advantage to deal with us.

We intend to make it a rule to finish and deliver all work during the week it is received. provided we get no orders to the contrary.
